

Jeanne W. Courtright, Ph.D.

39 Simon Street, Unit 5
Nashua, NH 03060
(603) 889-8648 x114

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

4/2011-Present Licensed Clinical Psychologist (NH#1222, NPI#1982777934)
LaMora Psychological Associates, Nashua, New Hampshire

- Member of a multidisciplinary group practice composed of social workers, psychiatric nurse practitioners, masters level therapists, and other psychologists with a variety of specialties.
- Eclectic and pragmatic clinical style that is tailored to each client's needs and goals. Theoretical approaches include Internal Family Systems and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy.
- Special interests include recovery from abuse or trauma, spiritual concerns, and working with couples.

3/2007-3/2011 Licensed Clinical Psychologist
Private Practice, Wheaton, Illinois

- Owner and sole practitioner of a general practice working with adults, couples, and adolescents.
- Experience with a wide variety of client problems, including depression, anxiety, trauma, grief/loss, and relationship issues.

2/1999-3/2007 Licensed Clinical Psychologist (IL#071006166)
Summit Clinical Services, Wheaton, Illinois

- Member of a multidisciplinary group practice.
- Extensive and varied experience working with adolescents and adults (of all ages) as individuals, couples, families, and groups.
- Co-led groups for women and a mixed group for men and women.
- Obtained additional three years of supervision/consultation beyond licensure for special training in treating trauma, dissociation, and PTSD.
- Completed post-doctoral training 1999-2000; psychology license obtained in 2000.

EDUCATION

1998	Ph.D.	Clinical Psychology	Rosemead School of Psychology Biola University, La Mirada, California APA Accredited Doctorate Program
1987	M.A.	Clinical Psychology	Wheaton College , Wheaton, Illinois Presidential Scholar
1979	B.A.	Psychology	Princeton University , Princeton, New Jersey Cum Laude, National Merit Scholar